The BLUE
and
WHITE

Foreword

To the class of '47, the class that has bridged the gap between the war years and the post-war period, with its challenging problems and possibilities, may this edition of "The Blue and White" serve as a reminder of your privilege in graduating into this first year of peace. Let us hope that each of you has gained from your teachers and school activities, the inspiration and the knowledge to cope with the problems of our day. May you meet the challenge as individuals and make this era one of lasting unity.

History of Class of 1947

Those first sophomore days at Medford High School were certainly hectic for the Class of 1947 when they arrived here in 1944. The many rooms and corridors were a mad jumble to the bewildered newcomers who were continually told to "take the elevator" by the upper classmen. As the weeks rolled by, the sophomores became acclimated to their new surroundings. Assemblies were held at various times, in which the Class of 1947 became acquainted with their headmaster, Mr. Kendall, who was succeeded in the following year by Mr. Leonard. Among the most enjoyable assemblies were the "pep" meetings, which were held just before important football games. The band, led by Mr. Schoonmaker, was present,

The school songs and cheers for Captains Geradi and Zampell were given with vigor. This energetic class had rapidly joined the swing of things!

"The newcomers have to be represented," said our class advisors, Miss De Wolfe and Mr. Cangiano. After a most thrill-packed election, the popular choice was: George McCarthy, President; Joan Morgan, Vice-President; Theresa Silvestro, Secretary; and Stanley Casazza, Treasurer. With the sophomore class well represented, the officers took charge. Class dues of $.25 were collected and the plans for the Sophomore Hop began to take shape for the early Spring. This gala event, the most prominent affair of the season, was held at the high school gymnasium on May 4, 1945. The coming and going of the hop brought the summer vacation upon us almost immediately. The Sophomore Class of 1947 doffed their memories of 1944 and 1945 for the junior year to come.

Once again we entered the lofty portals of our alma mater; no longer shy and bewildered, but experienced veterans having weathered the storm of our first year in high school. The boys returned a few inches taller and browner, and the girls a little bit lovelier and more grown-up (or so they thought).

We soon settled down to our studies since the number of credits necessary for graduation had been raised to 60. From the quarterly honor roll bulletins we learned that our class had its share of brains.

Though this was the first year of peace since 1941 we continued to buy stamps and bonds through our homerooms with only a little less fervor than during the war years.

Still more and more of our classmates joined the various services, and it was not unusual to see uniformed sailors, soldiers, and marines who could not resist coming back to visit "Old M. H. S."

As election time came round once more, we chose Alexander Cella as president, Joanne Hall as vice president, Arthur Duffy as treasurer, and Jeanne Collins as secretary. Striving to fulfill their duties, they proved to us that we had chosen wisely.

With the arrival of the football season, Warren McFague galloped down the field to glory. Because of his outstanding sportsmanship, he was elected captain of our next year's team.

We shall just skim over the fact that Somerville beat us for the first time in decades and go on to cite the memorable Thanksgiving Day Game which ended in a scoreless tie.

In March, gay posters announced the coming of the Junior Prom which, if we do say so ourselves, turned out to be the best M. H. S. has ever had. Just a week before the Prom we sponsored a Sadie Hawkins Day enabling the girls to "catch their man" for this grand affair.

It soon became time for the seniors to think of graduation and for the juniors to elect the marshalls, one from each homeroom, to represent our class at Class Day.

Before we realized it, June had come promising a glorious vacation with no homework and a well-earned rest before we returned once again to fun, studies, and the "best year of our lives", when we would be upper-classmen for the first time since junior high days.

The fall of '46 saw a series of capacity crowds at Fulton Street field. The Mustangs cooperated by turning in a commendable season's record of 8 wins and 3 losses. The season was highlighted by a clean-cut win over our traditional rival, Malden, by a score of 13-6. The football team, however, was given some competition for publicity at one point by a short lived strike which occurred on October 24.

At Playstead Park coach Stillman's soccer team was enjoying another successful season, winning 11, tying 1, and losing 3.

While all these athletic events were taking place, we took time to elect the finest officers a class has ever had. During the course of the year, their work upheld our appraisal of them. Our class officers for this year were: Donald DeMuzio, president; Ruth Harries, vice-president; Barbara Bates, secretary; Francis Lyons, treasurer.

With the onset of winter the puck-chasers donned their pads and began their weekly duels in the Boston Arena. While they had a lot of fun chasing the puck around the rink, they did not have too much luck putting it in the net.

At the same time the basketball team saw Mr. Bohn, a former Mustang basketball coach, take over once again. Although he was at the helm, the team had a mediocre season winning 6 and losing 10.

January 31 was the day of doom for most of the boys. The inflation of the prices of corsages caused a deflation in their wallets. Yes, how can you forget? It was the senior prom. The girls dressed in their best evening finery and the boys in their tuxedos tripped the light fantastic to the tune of Karl Rhode's orchestra. It was a delightful evening for all.

With the arrival of spring many events were taking place. While the scholars were tuning up their brains for the coming college boards, Mr. Schoonmaker was tuning up their voices for the annual graduation song. Mr. Terrill had his baseball team picked and ready for the coming season. As this history is going to press, the hopes are high for a championship team.

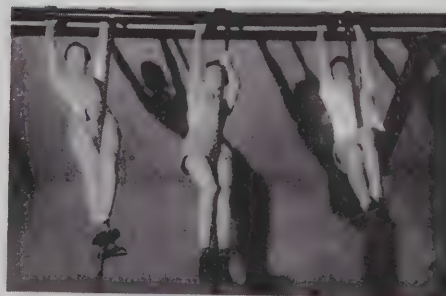

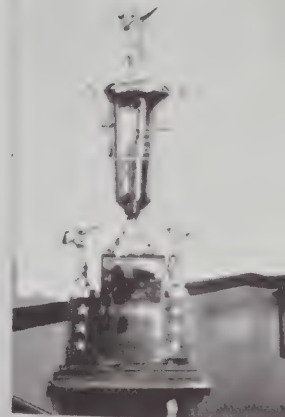

After the graduation of the class of '47, the teachers will surely remember us as a group of cooperative, studious, likable fellows and girls. We, the class of '47, will keep fond remembrances forever, of the achievements and good times of our three years at Medford High School.

BALL

Saturday, Sept. 14, 1946

Medford 7

Arlington 6

A completely untried Sophomore, Joe Gigliello, pulled the game out of the fire by drop-kicking the extra point by which the Mustangs beat rival Arlington. The hard-pressed Blue and White's, behind at the half 6-0, returned to the field with renewed spirit. After two punt exchanges Tom Kelley broke away from the 42 yard line and scored. Gigliello's talented toe then supplied the margin of victory.

Saturday, Sept. 21, 1946

Medford 13

Malden Catholic 0

The Mustangs made it two straight this afternoon by trouncing visiting Malden Catholic 13-0. The first home score came by way of a Kelley to Greenleaf lateral, who then threw a forward pass to the waiting arms of Capt. Warren McFague. Gino Paglucia decided the contest when he intercepted an M. C. pass and scampered 55 yards to pay-dirt.

Saturday, Sept. 28, 1946

Wakefield 0

The Blue and White eleven continued to roll along by beating an outclassed Wakefield eleven 18-0. The game was well played by both sides. Charlie Parris scored two of the team's three touchdowns, while Kelley made the third on a quarterback sneak.

Saturday, Oct. 5, 1946

Brockton 25

Medford 0

Playing one of the better teams of the east, the Mustangs dropped their first game of the season to a greatly superior Brockton team, 25-0.

Saturday, Oct. 12, 1946

Somerville 20

Medford 12

A hard-fighting Mustang eleven finally went down to defeat before Somerville, before a record-breaking crowd of 15,000, at Gillis Field. The score: Somerville 20 - Medford 12. The first Medford score came swiftly in the first period. After nine plays Jack Feltch punted to the Somerville 1-yard line where an attempted pickup was gathered in by Ed Puopolo. Three plays later Gino Paglucia slammed through the line to score.

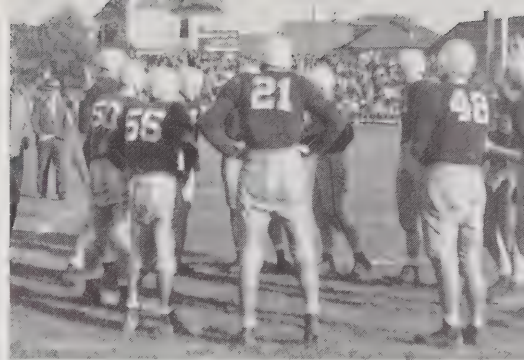

Somerville scored three times before the next Mustang counter, twice before the first half was over and once more midway through the third period.

Although frustrated on several occasions from making scores, once inches from the goal, the Blue and White kept fighting. In the final stanza, after an amazing goal-line stand by Somerville, Kelley ran a punt back to the 23. After Kelley gained a yard a right end, Joe Gigliello passed to Gino who was finally brought down on the 9. Charlie Parris then slid through a wile hole on the right side to score the second Medford goal.

Medford had lost its second game of the year but not after a grand attempt to win. The final score: 20-12.

Saturday, Oct. 19, 1946

Melrose 25

Medford 6

An eighty-nine yard return of a kickoff provided the only score for Medford as they went down to defeat at the hands of a fine Melrose team.

Saturday, Oct. 26, 1946

Medford 6

Everett 0

A rejuvenated Medford eleven battled to a 6-0 victory over a strong Everett team at Gillis Field today. The team had to battle two obstacles, one in the weird shift employed by Everett and penalties which took away one Medford touchdown. The score was made by a Kelley to Lear pass.

Saturday, Nov. 2, 1946

Medford 24

Newton 12

Before a small gathering of 4500 at Dickinson Field, Newton, the Blue and White unleashed a running attack which trampled Newton 24-12. Gino Paglucia and Charlie Parris provided most of the scoring as the former scored from 25 yards out and both of Parris's touchdowns were on long runs. The other score was made by a buck from the 1-yard line by Warren McFague.

Saturday, Nov. 9, 1946

Waltham 0

On this sunny Saturday the Medford team rose up and set Waltham back at the tune of 25-0.

Saturday, Nov. 16, 1946

Medford 27

Chelsea 6

Despite a shoulder injury to quarterback Tommy Kelley the Mustangs beat a weak Chelsea eleven at Chelsea Memorial Stadium 27-6. The Medford scoring was as follows: McFague went over after receiving a pass from Tom Kelley, Kelley scored from 34 yards out, McFague swept right end from ten yards out, and finally center Charlie Accomando intercepted a Chelsea pass and went over for a touchdown.

Thursday, Nov. 28, 1946

Medford 14

Malden 6

In the 59th renewal of the Medford-Malden classic, the Mustangs rolled over the highly touted Golden Tornado and Pearl Street Field 14-6. A greater score might have been registered if some of the Medford ball-carriers had not slipped.

After several minutes of play, in the first period, McFague turned right end for 6 yards and Gino Paglucia bucked for a first down on the Malden 28. Eight yards gave way when Kelley sliced inside left end. Ed Johnson saved the day for the team when he scooped up a fumble which would have stopped the Medford advance. McFague carried to the 12 and then caught a Kelley pass on the 4 and crossed the stripe for a touchdown. Feltch played a superb game kicking both extra points and kicking well.

Medford's joy was short-lived, however, as Coughlin took the kickoff on the three and was not stopped until he had crossed the goal-line. The sudden turn of events shocked the Medford fans but this tension was relieved somewhat when the try for the extra point failed.

After several attempts at making passes, Malden tried to make a first down instead of kicking on the fourth down, and failed. Tom Kelley picked up 5 on a sneak through the center. On the next play, Tom fed the ball to Charlie Parris who went through a big hole, which the line had opened up, and went the 49 yards to the goal line. Jack Feltch then kicked the extra point.

The rest of the game was hard-fought with neither team getting the breaks which would have given either a score. To the seniors who played their last game goes special credit for playing a splendid game.

SUMMARY

In reviewing the past season, it can be said that the Mustangs distinguished themselves in every game. With several veterans returning to build his team around, Coach O'Connor turned out a team which was always dangerous and never really defeated. Despite the three losses the season proved to be a successful one. Special credit should go to Capt. McFague for his fine leadership of the team, and to Tom Kelley for his field generalship. Although disappointed in the Somerville game, the team more than came back in the Malden game to prove their worth. The Class of '47 will always remember this football team.

Track

The Medford High School track team, paced by co-captains Eames and Parris had a successful indoor season, losing only to some of the state's best teams. The highlights of the season were a record breaking 600 yard run by Wes Eames at Somerville, and the excellent high-jumping of Sal Mazzocca who annexed a first place tie in the Northeastern and State meets.

Although, at this writing, it is impossible to predict the success of the outdoor team, from indoor results, the outlook is favorable. Bolstered by Gaffey and McFague and by a relay team which was the third best in the state, the outdoor team should really go!

Soccer

From a turnout of about seventy boys a team was built this year which was comparable to teams of the past six years. Ably led by co-captains Al Burnett and Dick Hart, the Stillman coached booters completed an arduous schedule of fifteen games with the outstanding record of eleven wins, three losses and one tie. The Medford team scored 45 goals to its opponents 21.

Highlights of the season featured victories over Andover Academy, 3-1; Harvard Junior Varsity, 3-0; and Gov. Dummer Academy, 5-1. Fourteen senior letters will be graduated from the squad this year and are as follows:

Basketball

Coach John Bohn returned to the helm of the 1947 Medford High basketball team early in December. Under his capable tutelage, the Blue and White hoopsters, led by Captain Warren McFague, staged an early season threat for top honors in the Greater Boston League. In one of the most thrilling contests ever played on the local court, Medford was edged 43-42 by a classy Somerville quintet. Among the seniors on the squad whose services will be missed next season are:

Captain Warren McFague
 Al Bennet
 "Rab" Endicott
 Al Kelley
 Bill O'Connell

Hockey

Disheartened by the loss of two returning lettermen, Fred Dunbury, who moved to the Cape, and Tom Howell, who went into the service, the hockey team struggled through a mediocre season for a Medford High School team. Coach John Prior built his team around the few returning lettermen and many promising juniors and sophomores, who would do well in the next few years.

The hockey team started the season with two ties and ended it with two wins, but what happened in between these games, with discouraging breaks often determining the outcome, Coach Prior and the hockey team want to forget. Fortunately, the current hockey team will graduate only four senior lettermen: Dick Marshall, Dave Lear, Edward Rauseo, and Paul Harterey. With the abundance of returning hockey players next year, Coach Prior hopes that the hockey team will assume its customary position at or near the top of the league.

At the time of this writing it is impossible to predict the success of the 1947 M. H. S. baseball team. The schedule plans for meetings with such traditional rivals as Somerville, Everett, Exeter Academy, Chelsea, and other Greater Boston League teams. From the looks of the fall baseball teams and from the fact that many veterans are returning to the squad, the team will be assured of a very successful season. At this moment the team shapes up as follows:

Down the field the girls raced on those brisk autumn days to win three out of their five games scheduled for the 1946 season.

Those with previous experience under the coaching of Miss Stewart and the beginners with Miss Ellard quickly jumped into the spirit of this invigorating fall sport and faithfully practised twice a week to prepare for the contests with our neighboring cities and towns. First and second teams were formed with a good percentage of girls to represent each class.

The game resembles ice hockey in that the object of the game is to get the leather ball between those two goal posts, but differs in having eleven players instead of five. The team was coached in techniques and passes to outwit its opponents.

Gladys Esposito as captain of the team did a fine job as a defenseman helping Alice Whear do her job as goalie and Margie Sanford ably led the line down the field as center forward. The following is the list of others on the first team, varsity and substitutes.

Girls' Tennis

The tennis season opened this year with the usual enthusiasm as the girls turned out for both fall and spring sessions. The more advanced players enjoyed competing with neighboring cities such as Melrose, Arlington, Belmont, and Watertown while the beginners played among themselves, practising their new-found ability. This year as always the team shall look forward to their match with the boys to determine whether the male sex continues to prove its superiority.

The beginners were:

Claire Moriarty
Teresa Prezioso

Josephine Russo
Mary Hirrel

Betty Crockett
Arlene Coates
Fay Nelson
Mary Lou Fergus
Mae Anderson
Janet Smith

Margie Sanford
Marie King
Muriel Fish
Virginia Dulong
Lois Fulgoni
Lorraine Doherty

The varsity team has not yet been determined at the time of this writing but some of the seniors on the team last year were:

Barbara Dolan
Ann Dewar

Ann Rossborough
Nancy Richmond
Dorothy Niland

Basketball

Under the guidance of Miss Stewart, the Girl's Basketball Team practiced on Wednesdays and Fridays with the following results:

For the first time teams were formed among the three classes. The senior team was coached by Miss Ellard and practiced on Mondays.

The Student Cabinet

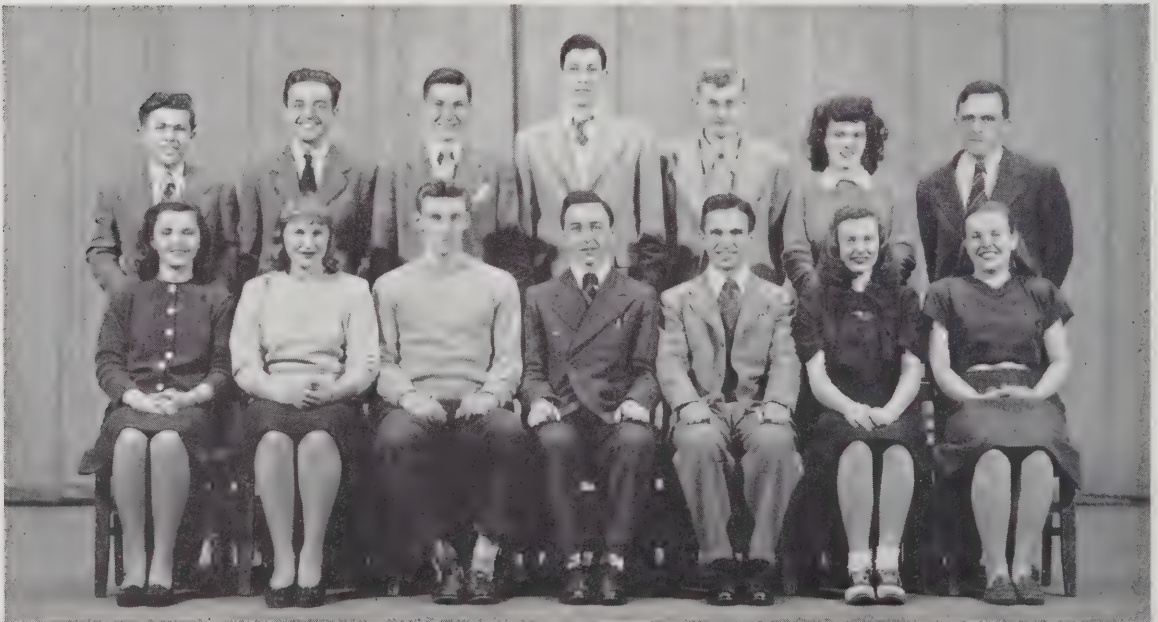

The student government, or the Student Council of Medford High School, is based, primarily, on that set-up of our own national government. Its executive is our headmaster - its governing bodies, the Student Cabinet, and the House of Delegates. To make Medford High School a better one through closer co-operation of its pupils and teachers; to make the pupils realize that because Medford High School is their school, it will be what they, its pupils, make it; to give to its pupils a voice in their governing; is the triple purpose of the Student Cabinet.

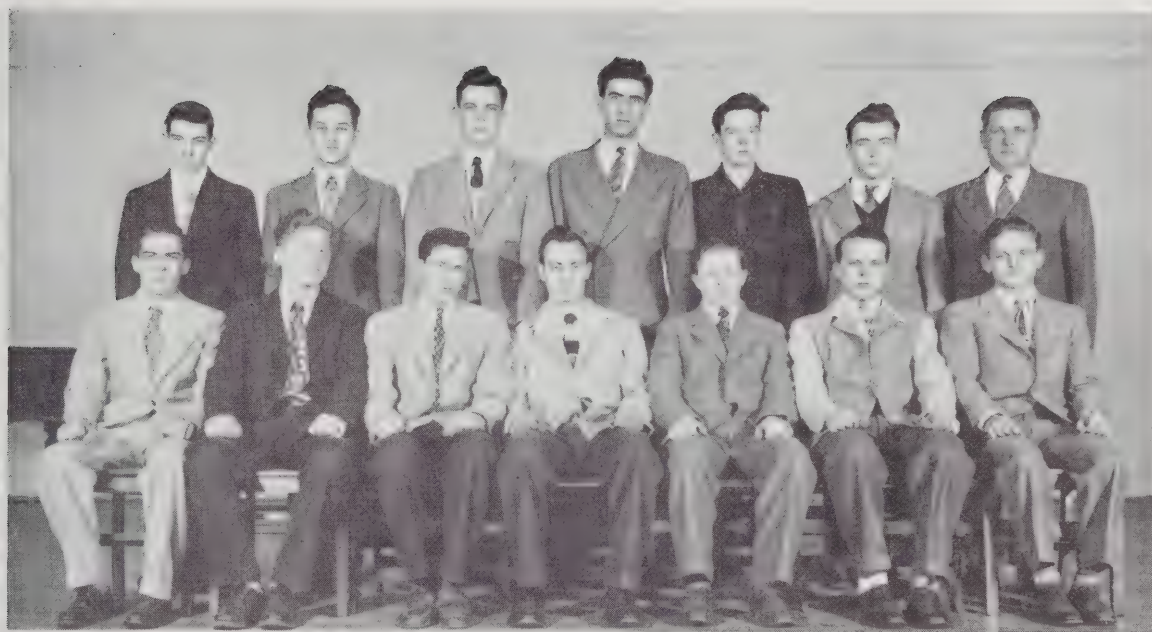

All organizations in the school are represented by this unit. Its composition is exclusive, for its membership is composed only of the presidents of recognized school organizations; the president of the sophomore and junior classes; and the four senior class officers.

It may be said safely that under the direction of able advisors and officers, all Medford High School Student Cabinets down through the years to, and including, the Cabinet of the 1947 graduating class, have been a credit to their school and have shown by their cooperation and accomplishments that they have fully lived up to the faith that their constituents have placed in them.

President, Francis Lyons; Vice-President, Donald DeMuzio; Secretary, Thomas Kelley.

Advisor, Mr. Bates.

This council is composed of representatives elected from each department of the Vocational School. During the year, the council has carried out many responsibilities among which are supervising the lunch room during the vocational lunch period, organizing dances and assemblies and cooperating in the various drives such as those of the Red Cross, the Salvation Army, the European Relief, and the March of Dimes.

The officers of the council are: President, Frederick Murray; Vice-President, Edmund N. Tarani; Secretary, Robert Brackett; Treasurer, Malcolm Wheaton.

Vocational Student Council

The representatives are:

The Faculty Adviser is Mr. Reid.

House of Delegates

The House of Delegates is composed of over forty students each chosen by and representing his respective homeroom. The faculty advisors are Mr. Pidgeon and Miss Webber.

The House of Delegates sponsors the Red Cross and Salvation Army drives and the March of Dimes. It discusses student problems and attempts to remedy difficulties. It is a fine step in learning to practice Democracy.

Co-operative Office Training Group

The Cooperative Office Training Group is composed of senior girls in the Shorthand and Business Machines Courses who wish to obtain business experience while in high school. By alternating for two weeks, the girls both attend school and work in a business office.

They receive regular wages for their work, while also receiving full school credits. We are proud that Medford High is the only school in this part of the country using this two week plan, which is admired by neighboring schools and business offices.

Co-operative Store Training Class

The Co-operative Store Training Course this year has enrolled in its membership an excellent group of young women who are specializing in the field of Retailing.

When one realizes the fact that one person out of every seven employable persons in this country is engaged in the Distributive Occupations, and that opportunities for advancement are great in this field, it is satisfying to see these young women taking advantage of this training.

The Co-operative Course in Store Training was established in our school system in January 1942 and since that date approximately one hundred senior girls have availed themselves of this specialized training in retailing.

The Course is established under the provisions of the George-Deen Act, and is operated on a plan of co-ordinated instruction whereby the student attends classes for part of each day, and works in the large department and chain stores for the rest of the day. The students are trained in selling, display, and in advertising. Positions in these departments are filled by our students, and they receive substantial remuneration for the hours employed in the stores.

The curriculum in school includes many related subjects in retailing, and is taught by the Teacher Co-ordinator, Mary Isabelle McKay. These subjects include: English, Salesmanship, Textiles, Merchandise Information, Window Display, Fashion, Color and Design, Advertising, Marketing, Economics of Retailing, Store Systems, Store Organization, Arithmetic and Personality Development. The requirements of the course are regular attendance at school and at work.

French Club

The French Club, under the direction of Miss Ryan, meets every other Wednesday in room 319 at the close of school. The club has more than thirty members and devotes itself to the appreciation and understanding of French people and customs. The members enjoy learning French folk dances and songs and have worked enthusiastically in putting on a play. Their theater group attended performances of French films such as "Jincho" and "It Happened at the Inn."

President, Joan Ricca; Vice President, Barbara Rodgers; Secretary, Eleanor Shahzade; Treasurer, Robert Robar.

The Art Club, which is under the direction of Miss Pratt, is an organization for seniors formed to make them conscious of themselves as a group, to help them paint after finishing school, and to give them extra-curricular opportunities for art work. The association is closely allied with the Hobby Club and together they visit museums and exhibits. The members meet once a month in room 312; on birthdays and other special occasions they hold parties.

Band

President, James Griffin; Vice-President, Robert Ellis; Secretary, Lois Smith; Treasurer, Richard Kor-ski.

The band is one of our outstanding musical organizations. It offers a fine opportunity for students who are instrumentally inclined. There are over ninety members of the band this year. Under Mr. Schoonmaker's direction, the band has won highest honors in the school music field, consistently holding first division honors in State, New England, and National contests.

The band makes public appearances at the football games and music festivals, such as our own public school festival and the state and New England ones. This year it has been invited to participate in the International Music Festival to be held at Montreal, Canada. The band played host to the Massachusetts Music Festival Association in May of last year when more than four thousand school boy and girl musicians came from all parts of the State to hold their annual all-day festival. Mr. Schoonmaker planned an added feature in an evening concert which had as its guest conductors some of the outstanding names in the field of music.

The Italian Club, under the direction of Miss Bruno, has just completed one of its most successful years. The Club was formed for a three-fold purpose, to learn about the customs of the Italian people, to study the cultural aspects of Italy, and to provide its members with a knowledge of Italians and of Italy which cannot be found in textbooks alone. During the year, the club has had many activities to carry out their purposes. Among these activities were its canned milk drive, which secured more than twelve hundred cans of milk for Italian children, lectures by the President of the Italian Relief Society and by a small Italian girl who had just arrived in this country, and its real Italian parties at Christmas and before the Lenten Season. The club also took trips to such places as the Opera House and the Museum of Fine Arts.

President, Joseph Bonafini; Vice-President, Rose Bucci; Secretary, Lorraine Luongo; Treasurer, Frank Antonuccio; Faculty Adviser, Miss Bruno.

Italian Club

Business Girls' Club

The aims of the Business Girl's Club are to obtain helpful information about the business world as well as to function as a social group. For activities the girls have entertained guest speakers, prepared a basket of fruit for an ill member of the school, held a theatre party and ended the year with the annual installation party. The emblem of the club, a book-shaped pendant with a rose and a quill in the center, is proudly worn by the members of the club, who look eagerly ahead to their future business careers.

President, Rita Doran; Vice-President, Eugenia McKiel; Recording Secretary, Barbara Thompson; Corresponding Secretary, Barbara Dolan; Treasurer, Josephine Orechia; Program Committee Chairman, Marion Downie.

Advisors: Miss Hubbard, Miss MacBrayne, Miss Mosessian.

Girls' Club

The Medford High School Girls' Club, which has now completed its fourteenth year was organized to promote friendship among the girls of the school and to give service whenever needed. Under the willing and cooperative guidance of its advisers, Mrs. Mary M. Bagley, Miss Mildred E. Judkins, and Miss Rita F. Kelly, the club has been able to accomplish much socially. A few of the most outstanding events of its very successful year included a Mother's Tea, a Christmas Party, and its Annual Banquet. The club pin is a six-pointed gold star with a blue "M" in the center.

President, Marilyn Mullen; Vice-President, Ida Healy; Recording Secretary, Antoinette Clemente; Corresponding Secretary, Marjorie Mullen; Treasurer, Phyllis Anderson.

Rifle Club

The Rifle Club is the youngster, having been formed during 1946. Its purpose is to promote safety and common sense through the medium of firearms. Under the leadership of Mr. Edward M. Brooks, the members and their officers, President Richard Sands, Vice President John Sias, Secretary Milly Imperato, and Treasurer Jeanette Iavelo, enter rifle meets and hold frequent practice sessions.

On May 7, the annual meeting was held at which new officers were elected and plans for 1947 were discussed.

The "M" Club under the supervision of Mr. Thomas W. O'Conner is composed of the members of the Medford High varsity teams. Its purpose is to increase the scholastic, athletic and moral standing of its members, to promote school spirit, and create between its members a common bond of interest.

Among its 1947 activities was a dance held during the spring vacation. A scholarship was presented to the member showing most promise at the end of the year.

The "M" Club

Orchestra

The orchestra consists of students who have ability in playing the stringed instruments. Although not as large as the band, it is gradually increasing in size and hopes soon to compete with the band in concert performance. At present, it is entirely a string orchestra, and has plans for several public appearances of its own.

The Home Economics Club, under the able leadership of Miss Baker, claims twenty-five members who are mostly seniors. The girls desirous of becoming nurses, participate in activities connected with this profession. At Christmas, the club made up a basket of food for a needy family. In the spring, the girls held an enjoyable fashion show.

The officers are: President, Phyllis A. Metcalfe; Vice-President, Geraldine P. Giarle; Secretary, Eleanor Nixon; Treasurer, Dolores E. DeLeo; Social Committee Chairman, Audrey E. Shaffer.

Home Economics Club

Protective Department

The Protective Department under the guidance of Mr. Edwin F. Pidgeon, has again quietly but efficiently gone about the task of keeping confusion out of the corridors during periods. The chief duties of this group, who are stationed at all intersections and stairwells, are directing visitors, supervising students in the corridors while classes are in session, watching lookers and assisting teachers.

Now that reconversion is over, the factories are again opening their doors to the sunlight -- and visitors. During 1946 and 1947 the Technical Club under the leadership of its President, John Black, Mr. Charles H. Rogers, Faculty Advisor, and its other able officers, Bruce Truesdale, Frank Cronin, and Edmund Bouchie, has visited many factories and scientific institutions such as General Electric, Ford, Tufts Engineering Department, Wentworth Institute and Edison Electric.

The year was brought to a finish with the annual scientific treasure hunt and then the banquet which was attended by not only the present members, but also many of the alumni who still enjoy meeting with the younger members of Mr. Rogers' Technical family.

All Girl Choir

DIRECTOR

Mr. Ralph I. Schoonmaker

President, Eleanor Alden; Vice-President, Lois Smith; Secretary, Dorothy Carmolli; Treasurer, Isabel Valcour.

The Medford High School All Girl Choir under the capable direction of Mr. Schoonmaker has brought throughout the year to appreciative audiences of this school and city a classic form of entertainment in their concerts rendered in the Chevalier Auditorium. The All Girl Choir is a spirited group of girls intently interested in their work. In addition to the February Choral Concert and the St. Patrick's Day Frolic, they have participated in the Christmas Program, sung for several clubs, and will be a part of the mammoth State Festival to which Medford High School will this year play host; they will also participate in the choral contest of New England which is sponsored by the New England Festival Association. We know that those who have been present at any of these activities have fully appreciated the time and effort put forth by the director and the eighty girls who compose the Medford High School All Girl Choir.

The Stamp Club is an association composed of students from Medford High School who are interested in philately. The members met once a month on a Wednesday to exchange stamps and stamp stories. Each year they have speakers and movies for the benefit of the members and present an exhibit in the school library for the benefit of other students. Miss Adams, the faculty advisor, has only to observe this active and enthusiastic group, which contained twenty-nine members this year.

President, Joseph L. Robinson; Vice-President, Lois M. Swenson; Secretary, Clive Greenough; Treasurer, Russel Downes.

Stamp Club

Camera Club

The Medford High School Camera Club asserts in its purpose for existing a three-fold aim, to stimulate interest, to increase knowledge, and to perfect skill in photographic fields. Its faculty advisor is always most generous of her time and ability. With materials pertaining to their art appearing more in abundance, the members of the club in proportion are able to apply their skill more and to avail themselves of the opportunities offered in and around their school. Samples of their accomplishments in taking worthwhile "shots" may be found in the Medford High School Review and elsewhere in this edition of the Blue and White Yearbook.

The year 1947 marks the opening of the club dark room located in the high school. Many members who have had no working knowledge in the developing of prints but that based on Miss Burke's lectures may now have the opportunity to apply their information under supervised instruction.

We do not wish to create an impression that this club has been organized solely for working purposes, for in all well-constructed organizations there is room for sociability, and the Medford High School Camera Club is no exception. Its group meetings are fun, they make and strengthen friendships, and they are worthwhile.

We of the Medford High School are indeed proud to be able to boast of an organization maintained for the purposes of increasing camera knowledge together with creating an atmosphere of sociability.

President, Ronald Young; Vice-President, Jean Curto; Secretary, Barbara Partridge; Treasurer, Ann Doherty.

Advisor, Miss Burke.

The Hobby Club, under the able supervision of Miss Pratt, offers the opportunity to all students, especially those not in craft classes, to enjoy extra craft work. The members of the club, who meet every Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, have found their efforts well-rewarded, because their metal dishes, jewelry, and carved wooden objects are admired by everyone. During the year, the club held a finger-painting exhibition and a Valentine party. Besides their own exhibitions, the Hobby Club also attended various exhibits.

President, Ronald Young; Vice-President, Paul Ciancello; Secretary, Joan Kentley; Treasurer, Joyce Hammond.

Girls' Athletic Association

Do you have a friend? Do you need a friend? Join the G. A. A. This is the club that belongs to the girls of M. H. S. who enjoy getting together once a month to join in activities and entertainment put on by the girls themselves or invited guests. In the past the meetings have included Christmas parties, fashion shows, moving pictures, picnics, and the club has now formed a bowling team. The girls are under the guidance of Miss Ellard and Miss Stewart who help to make the association the success that it is. A highlight of the club year is the Banquet usually held in May. Officers are elected annually to lead the members which total approximately 150.

Ski Club

Glistening white snow; gleaming, sunny skies; and the "whoosh" of a figure on skis, is a portrait of the Ski Club vacationing at North Conway.

Fifteen sports-loving boys and girls combined with the jovial chaperonage of Mr. and Mrs. Pidgeon make the Ski Club. The meeting is held once a year for three days. Three days of fresh air and sunshine, snowy slopes, all day skiing, laughs, jokes, and the "bestest" fun imaginable. That's the life!
